FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 13, 1874. HOS. EDWIS H. EWING. This gentleman has announced himself a candidate for United States senator. Mr. Ewing is one of Tennessee's most distinguished sons. His personal character is above reproach, and in the United States senate he would relayor of respectability to his associates. Mr. Ewing has recently made a speech | =Nash at Murfreesboro, in which we find much track. to commend and something to condemn. In discussing parties, Mr. Ewing says: "The two grand divisions now are the Democratic and Radical parties. All effective men must belong to one or the other now. I belong to the Democratic party. All who claimed to be independents are, whether innocently or otherwise, workers of mischief, are nefficient to accomplish anything good for the country, and fill a useless space in politics." These are preless space in politics." These are preless space in politics. The Country has at Nashville.
